666

Cornish, C. A.

September 26th, 1917

C. A. Cornish, Esq.,

University Schools.

Dear Mr. Cornish:

Very many thanks for the copies of your two books recently published. I congratulate you on having been able to accomplish such a substantial piece of work in addition to your regular duties. I am sure that your experience will make the books very useful for their purposes, and I hope that the work you have spent upon them will have been profitable to you.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

September 1917